MR. L. M. GOITSCHALK
will commence, on the 20th instant, at his rooms, No. 766 Hroadway a practical and theoretical course of instruction on the piano, on the plan of the Conservatoire of Paris. The pupils will be divided into classes of eight each. The course will comprise eight lessons, of two hours each; the first hour will be devoted to the study and performance of some symphonic masterpiece of the great composers, carefully transcribed for eight pianos; the second hour will be devoted to individual instruction, each pupil in turn playing some ordillant piece by a modern piano composer.

This plan has proved the most successful of any yet attempted in the Conservatoires of Europe, and is almost unversally adopted. Each pupil, in this way, get all almost unversally adopted.
